

Ajah Lewis, BA, M.Ed., Counseling Intern

Counseling Intern at Mosaic Tree Counseling

Ajah is a compassionate, goal-oriented, and dedicated intern, with 6 years' experience working with children ages 3-15.

In her free time, Ajah enjoys reading books, watching movies, playing with her Yorkie Ellie, working out and spending time with family and friends.

Professional Background:

Ajah's professional background consists of Registered Behavior Therapist, Social Emotional Learning Facilitator, Behavior Interventionist, and Mentor.

Ajah's experience enabled her to adhere a keen level of knowledge on behaviors, emotions, and environmental influences.

Education:

Ajah holds 2 degrees and is currently obtaining her third.

Associate in Psychology from Georgia Perimeter College.

Bachelor's in Psychology from Georgia State University.

Master's in Clinical Mental Health Counseling from Texas Southern University – May 2024

Personal Philosophy:

Ajah has a profound love to inspire and encourage the youth. Ajah believes with the right guidance and tools; children will become strong minded adults set to produce a fruitful future and live a purposeful life.

Specialties:

Ajah's clients consist of children who are Autistic, and those who struggle with depression, anxiety, ADHD, and behavior disorders. Ajah offers individual, group and family sessions.