

Erica Drexler, MA, MS, LPC-Associate

Licensed Professional Counselor Associate at Mosaic Tree Counseling

Erica was born in California and raised in Texas where she became a minister, and a youth nonprofit owner.

Professional Background:

Erica has been with Mosaic Tree Counseling for many years, starting as a Practicum Intern.

Education:

She received her first master's degree from Howard University School of Divinity in 2013 in Theology. Then graduated in 2017 with a second master's in clinical Mental Health from the University of St. Thomas.

Personal Philosophy:

Erica is a solution-focused therapist who cares deeply for her clients and helps them to navigate through their struggles.

Specialties:

Erica is enthusiastic about helping and encouraging others. She specializes in working with youth and women who are struggling with anxiety, depression, suicide, behavioral issues, communication skills, self-esteem, faith, and women issues.