

Rodney Keller, MA, LPCA

Licensed Professional Counselor-Associate at Mosaic Tree Counseling

Rodney love for helping others despite the need, started over thirty years ago. Rodney has been married for over twenty years, and has one stepdaughter and a Shih Tzu. Rodney is an active member of his church and community. Rodney volunteers with different community programs within the church, feeding the homeless, and working with adolescents, teens, and adults. Rodney likes reading and watching movies.

Professional Background:

Rodney started this journey over 30 years ago working with individual from different cultural backgrounds with dual diagnosis and other mental health challenges. He is also skilled in group facilitation and relationship counseling.

Rodney has worked in several psychiatric treatment program for adolescents and adults with severe behavioral disorders. Rodney has been blessed to work with variety of psychiatric disorders including but not limited to major depression, anxiety, and bipolar disorders, oppositional defiant, ADHD, and substance use disorders.

In 1998 Rodney received the Showcase Award from the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation for his outstanding work with hard to serve individuals.

In 2023 Rodney was recognized once again for his integrity, dedication, and innovation working with multi-disciplinary teams to address the needs of individuals that have Autism.

Education:

Rodney has a Bachelors of Arts in Psychology from the University of Phoenix, and a Masters of Arts in Counseling from the Houston Graduate School of Theology.

Personal Philosophy:

Rodney is best known for his appreciation for the worth of the individual. Rodney prefers to use an eclectic approach while working with his clients, because he recognizes that each client concern is as diverse as the client themselves. He enjoys being a counselor because "some people just need a little extra help to make it in this world." He feels that it is imperative to build a strong therapeutic bond with his clients, because he feels that trust is the fuel that powers progress.

Specialties:

Rodney has a passion for working with individuals that are considered hard to serve, helping them find their voice. Rodney enjoys working with individuals with intellectual developmental disabilities and autism.